

I, along with many American Citizens are concerned about the poor "health of our public airwaves and the dispersal of propaganda. We expect the FCC to take some action to fix the current problems caused by the FCC reversal of rules which limit control of airwaves by a few powerful corporations. It is reasonable to expect a response from the FCC regarding the Sinclair plans to highjack our airwaves with their propaganda program "Stolen Honor".